WHAT'S THE LINK BETWEEN A 100-YEAR-OLD CAR AND A HEALTHIER LIFE?

Well, in 1925, Nevill Westwood made history as the first person to drive right around Australia in a small Citroën 5CV, “Bubsie,” proving such a journey was possible. In 1926, he repeated the feat in an Essex Super Six, this time with a greater focus on health and wellbeing. Nevill’s aim was to share practical ways to live a longer, healthier life. Now, in 2026, The Incredible Journey retraces this second expedition, travelling around Australia in the spirit of Nevill’s remarkable adventure.

Come and see this remarkable 100-year-old car and discover practical ways to live a longer, healthier life!
